

LAUREN GOEHE BIOGRAPHY

My name is Lauren Goehe, and I'm running for the Northland Pines School Board. I'm a wife, mother of five, business owner, Northland Pines class of 2005 graduate, and a born again Christian.

My husband and I have lived in the beautiful Northwoods our entire lives, and together operate a pier business in Conover, Dock Doctor's. We have also created a homestead farm for our family where we raise livestock, honey bees, and grow an extensive variety garden.

Our children are ages 4, 7, 9, 11, and 14, and they all attend Northland Pines. I sincerely believe our school has outstanding teachers, students, and staff, and it is a source of pride that my children will represent another generation of our family to be educated by the NPSD system.

My father Charles Bonson, graduated from Northland Pines and in the 1990's served multiple terms on the school board. As a mother, Northland Pines graduate and lifelong resident of this community, I believe I have much to offer as a school board member both in life experience and perspective. I listen, genuinely consider ideas, positions and the concerns of others, and I will work diligently to improve educational opportunities and to protect our children.

The world is rapidly changing; our children and schools are experiencing the consequences of these changes. I stand for academic excellence, parental rights, transparency, and traditional American values. I want to act as a shield against harmful and extreme ideologies that have no place in public education. I want to be a catalyst for eliminating unnecessary controversy from our schools and to halt a slide down the slippery slope of arcane ideologies, focusing instead on the educational proficiency that will lead to a student's successful future.

Let me be your voice on the school board; let me bring a fresh perspective to school leadership. I will raise the bar, and our children will rise to it! I ask for, and I'd be honored to receive your vote on April 4th.
